CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE WITH MARYLAND RULES OF PROCEDURE
RULE 105

Comes now Cleopatra Campbell, Solicitor for Marlene Stotler, Complainant, and in compliance with Maryland Rules of Procedure, Rule 105, says:

- 1. That on February 23, 1978, she caused certified letters containing a Bill of Complaint To Foreclose Right of Redemption with exhibits, Order for Posting and Mailing and an Order of Publication and subpoena to Clarence E. Lewis, Lorraine V. Wolfe, and Hazel Brien (Hazel Bryan), Respondents, at their last known addresses.
- 2. The certified letter mailed to Lorraine V. Wolfe was delivered on February 25, 1978, and signed for by her authorized agent, Debbie Wolfe. The signed receipt for said letter is attached hereto as Exhibit I.
- 3. The certified letter mailed to Clarence E.

 Lewis was returned by the postal authorities marked "unclaimed."

 See attached envelope and receipt marked as Exhibit II hereto. After the return of the letter by the postal authorities, a first class letter containing the same documents was mailed to Clarence E. Lewis and the same address and that letter was not returned by the postal authorities.

- 4. The certified letter mailed to Hazel Brien (Hazel Bryan) on February 23, 1978, at her last known address of Route 1, Aetna Road, Hagerstown, Maryland, was returned by the postal authorities marked "addressee unknown." Said
